Clothianidin Thiamethoxam PRA Milestone Schedule EPA 6-7-16.docx

Hi Anita,

Here is an updated schedule with the caveat that this is my guesstimate of the situation, but it hasn't been vetted through the teams. It will give you a feel on where we are on study reviews and what has / has not been exchanged to date. For the dates that were past due, I moved them into the future, but they're probably not 100% accurate on exact timing. I'll print a couple copies and bring with me for the 4 pm bilat.

Thanks,

Monica

Hi Anita,

The April 28th version is the last time I updated the joint neonic PRA schedule. I will try to do a quick update this afternoon and send it to you a little before 4.

Thanks,

Monica

Subject: EFED neonic document sharing 4/29/16 - Email 1

Hello,

This is the first of a three emails I'm sending to transmit clothianidin and thiamethoxam draft reviews and information. I thought it would be better to send several targeted emails, each with a batch of affiliated attachments, rather than blend all attachments in one email. Below are the emails you should receive after this:

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Since there has been so much discussion about the schedule in recent meetings, I took a stab at updating the 3/24/16 version of the Joint PRA timeline (updated version attached) to reflect completed tasks, ongoing conversations, and some slippage in the dates. There are a few questions in there where I still need to check in with the EPA chemical teams. However, I thought it was important to share this with all the partner agencies.

If there are any technical difficulties or attachments don't go through, please let me know. Also, if I missed any relevant team members, please forward this on. Below are a few items I've noted from recent calls where I believe EPA is hoping for some follow-up information from PMRA:
